CADAD Executive Committee

The CADAD Executive Committee (the “Executive”) comprises the President, Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary and two other elected officers.

The current membership of the Executive is:

President
Professor Denise Chalmers, The University of Western Australia

Vice President
Vacant

Treasurer
Associate Professor Ian Solomonides, Macquarie University

Secretary
Associate Professor Ian Solomonides, Macquarie University

Other elected officers
Dr Michael Sankey, University of Southern Queensland
Associate Professor Heather Smigel, Flinders University

Role of the Executive Committee

The role of the Executive is to act for CADAD in all respects except those matters which are required in the Constitution to be determined by members of CADAD.

The responsibilities of the Executive shall include: arranging and conducting meetings; developing and reviewing strategic directions; preparing and overseeing budgets to support these strategic directions; establishing and monitoring working parties to transact CADAD business; developing and maintaining effective communication channels between the Executive and members between meetings.